THIS AGREEMENT is entered into this 1st day of February, 2022, between the Village of Oak Park, Illinois (“Village”), an Illinois home rule municipal corporation, and Rhonda Sallee Ramos (“Administrative Law Judge”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Village seeks the services of an administrative law judge to hear and determine cases which fall within the Village’s system of administrative adjudication of parking, standing, compliance and ordinance violation cases as established by ordinance; and

WHEREAS, the Village’s Administrative Adjudication Ordinance, codified as Chapter 29 of the Oak Park Village Code (“Village Code”), sets forth minimum qualifications and training requirements for the position of Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”); and

WHEREAS, the Village has determined that the ALJ meets the qualifications and training requirements set forth in the Village Code; and

WHEREAS, the ALJ is ready and willing to perform the services of an administrative law judge as set forth in this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the impartiality required of an administrative law judge for the Village requires that the parties enter into an independent contractor, as opposed to an employment, relationship.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties agree as follows:

Section 1. Recitals Incorporated. The above recitals are incorporated herein as though fully set forth.

Section 2. General Scope of Work and Duties.

C. The ALJ shall perform such additional duties which, in the discretion of the Director, are necessary and incidental to the role of an administrative law judge. Such duties may include, and shall not be limited to:

1. Research of applicable law;
2. Review and provide input on notices and documents used in the Village's system of administrative adjudication when requested to do so by the Director;
3. Review and provide input on processes used in the Village's system of administrative adjudication when requested to do so by the Director; and

D. The ALJ shall not perform the function of legal counsel for the Village and any input provided by the ALJ regarding processes or forms shall be advisory in nature and all Village legal advice shall be provided by the Village Attorney.

E. The ALJ shall not exceed four hundred and fifty (450) paid hours during the term of this Agreement.

F. The ALJ shall immediately notify the Director of any and all administrative adjudication, hearing officer or other similar type services contemplated to be provided by the ALJ to other entities. The Director shall determine in the Director's sole discretion whether the provision of such services by the ALJ interferes with the ALJ's duties to be provided pursuant to this Agreement and whether further action is appropriate, up to and including termination of this Agreement.

G. The ALJ shall provide all services pursuant to this Agreement with the highest degree of ethical conduct and in compliance with all applicable laws.

Section 3. License to Practice Law.

A. Prior to the execution of this agreement, the ALJ must demonstrate that the ALJ has a license to practice law in the State of Illinois that is in good standing. The ALJ shall maintain the ALJ's license to practice law in the State of Illinois in good standing at all times during the term of this Agreement.

B. The ALJ shall immediately notify the Director of any disciplinary action that is either actually pending, threatened or taken against the ALJ by the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission of the Illinois Supreme Court ("ARDC"), or any other applicable body of another state in which the ALJ is licensed to practice law.

C. If the ALJ's license to practice law is suspended or terminated by the ARDC or any other applicable body, this Agreement shall be null and void and shall be immediately terminated.

D. If any disciplinary action is taken against the ALJ in any other state with regard to the ALJ's license to practice law, or if any disciplinary action which does not amount to a suspension or termination of the ALJ's license to practice law is taken against the ALJ in Illinois, the Village shall have the sole discretion to terminate this agreement.

Section 4. Work Hours and Schedule.

A. The ALJ's work hours shall be determined by the Director. The ALJ understands that the Village may retain the services of other administrative law judges and the Director may assign work at the Director's discretion. 3. Provide the ALJ with reasonable access to all pertinent documents and records for use in rendering administrative adjudication decisions; and
4. Provide the ALJ with appropriate facilities to conduct hearings, including stenographic services, security, and administrative support to facilitate the efficient conduct of such hearings.

Section 6. Nature of Relationship.

A. The ALJ is and shall remain for all purposes an independent contractor and shall not be deemed to be an agent or employee of the Village for any purpose.

B. This Agreement shall not be construed to create an employment relationship between the parties or to qualify the ALJ for any Village employee benefits, including any separate payment of salary, wages, or any employee benefits available to Village employees. In addition, the Village shall have no obligation to provide the ALJ with: (1) industrial accident, workers' compensation or unemployment insurance; (2) medical insurance or the payment of medical insurance premiums; (3) vacation, sick, or holiday pay; (4) payment or withholding of social security or other taxes; (5) any other benefits that are now, or may from time to time become, available to Village employees.

The Village reserves the right to renew this Agreement with the Contractor's consent for an additional one (1) year period under the same terms and conditions as set forth herein.

B. The Village may terminate this Agreement at any time prior to the expiration of the term of this Agreement by giving written notice to the ALJ pursuant to the provisions of Section 10 below.

C. The ALJ may terminate this Agreement by giving thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Village.

D. This Agreement shall automatically terminate if, during the term as defined above, the ALJ is not able to perform the services set forth herein for any reason, including, without limitation, the death, mental incapacity or physical disability of the ALJ.
