

Citizen Commissions	2024 Budget Requests	2023 Budget
Aging in Place	$18,500	$0
Board of Health	No Work Plan	$300
Building Codes	$2,000	$2,000
Citizen Involvement	$7,500	$5,500
Citizen Police Oversight	$3,600	$3,050
Civic Information Systems	$1,000	$900
Community Design	$100	$100
Community Development	$500	$0
Community Relations	No Work Plan	$15,100
Disability Access	3,000	$800
Environment & Energy	$1,750	$3,900
Farmer's Market	$750 plus FY24 Budget	See FY 23 Budget
Fire & Police	$0	$0
Historic Preservation	$1,230	$1,230
Housing Programs Advisory	$350	$200
Liquor Control Review Board	$0	$0
Plan Commission	$400	$400
Transportation Commission	$10,000	$10,000
Zoning	$400	$400
	$50,330	$43,880

NOTES:

- (1) CPOC notes an additional $100,000 in the FY 24 budget for consulting services related the police study and the review of CPOC
- (2) The Farmers Market also has a separate budget in the Health Department which contains the on-g
- (3) The Board of Health, Community Relations Commission and Citizen Involvement Commiss

!

going operational costs such as staffing.
ion have not turned in work plans yet for 2024.