IX. Non-Agenda Public Comment.

President Scaman asked whether there were any persons wanting to make public comments. The following persons provided public comments:

Adam M expressed concern about ongoing violence and disturbances he attributes to "Mike's Place," including a recent incident involving gunshots, and criticized police and village inaction on towing and enforcement. He urged the board to remove the bar's parking access from the alley to Roosevelt—especially on Cuyler/Highland—to reduce crowds and improve neighborhood safety.

Terry expressed concern about a violent incident on Halloween night in Oak Park involving around 500 teenagers, and praised the Oak Park and River Forest police for their response. They criticized an editorial questioning police actions, emphasized the need for community support for law enforcement, and offered to volunteer in schools to address youth behavior.

Robert T, representing Oak Park Firefighters Local 95, thanked President Scaman, the Village Board, and Manager Jackson for their strong commitment to public safety, highlighting major improvements in the fire department. These include station renovations, equipment upgrades like a new fire truck, the addition of a third full-time ambulance, increased staffing with seven new hires, and comprehensive training—all of which enhance service for residents.
