5. The Mortgagee or the holders of the Note who make any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes or assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate procured from the appropriate public office without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax, assessment, sale, forfeiture, tax lien or title or claim thereof.

6. Mortgagors shall pay each item of indebtedness herein mentioned, both principal and interest, when due according to the terms hereof. At the election of the holders of the principal note, and without notice to Mortgagors, all unpaid indebtedness secured by this Mortgage shall, notwithstanding anything in the principal note or in this Mortgage to the contrary, become due and payable in case default shall occur and continue for three days in the performance of any other agreement of the Mortgagors herein contained.

7. When the indebtedness secured by this Mortgage becomes due, whether by the terms of the note or by acceleration or otherwise, holders of the note or Mortgagee shall have the right to foreclose the lien created by this Mortgage and also shall have all other rights provided by the laws of Illinois for the enforcement of a mortgage debt. In any suit to foreclose the lien hereof, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the court order for sale all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Mortgagee or holders of the note for attorney's fees, court costs, appraiser's fees, outlays for documentary and expert evidence, stenographer's charges, publication costs and costs (which may be estimated as to items to be expended after entry of the court order) procuring all such abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, and guarantee policies which may be reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to bidders at any sale which may be had pursuant to such court order the true condition of the title to or the value of the premises. In addition, all similar expenditures and expenses shall become additional indebtedness secured by this Mortgage and immediately due and payable, with interest at the rate of nine per cent per annum, when paid or incurred by Mortgagee or holders of the Note in connection with: (a) any action, suit or proceeding, including but not limited to probate and bankruptcy proceedings, to which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant, by reasons of this Mortgage or any indebtedness secured by this Mortgage; or (b) preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after accrual of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; or (c) preparations for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced.

8. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: First, on account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph; second, all other items which under the terms hereof constitute secured indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the Note, with interest as herein provided; third, all principal and interest remaining unpaid; fourth, any surplus to Mortgagors, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns as their rights may appear.

9. Upon or at any time after the filing of a complaint to foreclose this Mortgage, the Court in which such complaint is filed may appoint a receiver of the premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Mortgagee hereunder may be appointed as Mortgagee in possession. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of the premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period for redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of the period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) The indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this Mortgage, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to this lien or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

10. No action for the enforcement of this Mortgage lien or of any term or condition of this Mortgage shall be subject to any defense which would not be available in a breach of contract action on the Note.

11. Mortgagee or the holders of the Note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

12. Mortgagee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence, or conditions of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this Mortgage or to exercise any power given by this Mortgage unless expressly obligated to do so by the terms of this Mortgage, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of his own gross negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Mortgagee, and he may require indemnities satisfactory to him before exercising any power herein given.

13. Mortgagee shall release this Mortgage and the lien created thereby by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this Mortgage has been fully paid; and Mortgagee may execute and deliver a release to and at the request of any person who shall either before or after maturity, produce and exhibit to Mortgagee the principal Note, representing that all indebtedness secured by this Mortgage has been paid, which representation Mortgagee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a release is requested of the Mortgagee and the Mortgagee has never executed a certificate on any document identifying it as the principal note, the Mortgagee may accept as the original Note any note which is presented and which conforms in substance with the description of the Note in this Mortgage and which appears to be executed by the Makers.

14. The terms and conditions in this Mortgage shall extend to and be binding upon the Mortgagors and all persons claiming under or through Mortgagors, and the word "Mortgagors" shall include all such persons and all persons at any time liable for the payment of the indebtedness or any part thereof, whether or not such persons shall have executed the principal note, or this Mortgage.

15. At the election of the Holder of the Note, and without notice, the principal amount remaining unpaid on the Note, together with accrued interest thereon, shall become at once due and payable at the place of payment in the event Mortgagors, or those succeeding to (his/her/their) interest, directly or indirectly, transfers, assigns, convey, or contracts to convey any interest in the premises of the beneficial interest in the Mortgagors.
